

String Trimmer Head Replacement

This trimmer head is engineered for efficient and reliable performance in gardening tools. Constructed from high-quality metal, this trimmer head ensures durability and longevity.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Replacement Trimmer Head

This high-performance trimmer head is engineered for heavy-duty brush cutting and lawn maintenance tasks. Constructed from premium aluminum, it offers excellent balance and superior abrasion resistance to ensure long-term durability in demanding work environments. Designed for compatibility with 42-52CC brush cutter engines, this component provides a reliable and precise solution for maintaining garden equipment.

Technical Specifications

Key Performance Indicators

|                                     |                                 |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 100 %Abrasion Resistance | 1 HighBalance Rating |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|

|                             |                     |
|-----------------------------|---------------------|
| Material Composition | High-grade Aluminum |
|-----------------------------|---------------------|

|                                       |              |
|---------------------------------------|--------------|
| Compatible Engine Displacement | 42cc to 52cc |
|---------------------------------------|--------------|

Service & Supply

|                           |                                |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Available Services | OEM Services, Custom Packaging |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------|