

Tariff Terminal Construction

Construction of a tariff terminal is underway at the Chirundu Border Post in Zambia. The structure features red brick construction, large windows, and a curved architectural design.

Project Overview

Chirundu Border Post Development

The project involves the construction of a proposed Tariff Terminal located at the Chirundu Border Post in Zambia. This infrastructure development features a distinctive architectural design, utilizing red brick construction with integrated large windows. The project is designed to enhance transit efficiency and provide robust operational facilities at this vital international border crossing.

Technical Details

Architectural Style	Curved structural design
Primary Material	Red brick masonry

Construction Status

Current Status	Final stages of construction
Site Condition	Exterior work in progress, Construction materials on-site