

Try Square Tool

This try square is a woodworking tool for marking and checking 90-degree angles. It is made of a blade and stock fixed at a right angle, ensuring square corners and perpendicular lines.

Product Overview

Professional Try Square

The Try Square is an essential precision tool designed for marking and checking perfect 90-degree angles in woodworking projects. Constructed with a durable steel blade and a sturdy stock, it ensures that your corners are square and lines are accurately perpendicular. This tool is fundamental for achieving the high level of precision and accuracy required for professional woodworking craftsmanship.

Technical Specifications

Standard Angle	90 degrees
Blade Material	Steel
Measurement Range	28 cm

Key Features

Features	90-degree calibration, High-precision marking, Woodworking essential, Durable construction
----------	--