

Two-Burner Stainless Steel Gas Stove

This gas stove features two individually controlled burners set on a stainless steel surface. Each burner has a square grate to support cookware and a control knob on the front panel.

Overview

Professional Two-Burner Gas Stove

This two-burner gas stove is designed for efficient cooking in professional or high-demand environments. Featuring a durable stainless steel surface, it provides a robust and easy-to-clean cooking platform. Each burner is equipped with individual flame intensity controls, allowing for precise heat management during culinary tasks.

Physical Characteristics

Surface Material	Stainless Steel
Number of Burners	2
Grate Design	Square cookware support grates

Controls & Operation

Control Mechanism	Front-mounted manual control knobs
Burner Independence	Yes