

Two-Way Audio Door Phone System

This audio door phone system allows for two-way communication and remote door unlocking. It consists of an indoor unit with a speaker, microphone, and door release button, and an outdoor unit with a speaker grill and call button.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Access Control Solution

This two-way audio door phone system provides a reliable and secure method for visitor management and access control. Designed for both residential and commercial applications, the system features clear two-way communication capabilities and integrated door unlocking functionality. With options for both surface and flush mounting, it offers flexible installation to suit various architectural requirements.

Technical Specifications

Wiring System	2-wire system
Mounting Type	Surface Mount, Flush Mount
Outdoor Unit Material	Plastic, Metal

Features

Key Functions

- Two-way audio communication
- Remote unlocking capability
- ID card access support
- Wireless connectivity options

Status Indicators

LED Indicator • Call Button • Unlock Button