

Universal Remote Control for Audio/Video Systems

This universal remote control is designed for audio and video systems. It features a numeric keypad, system control buttons, audio/video input selection, and program selection for comprehensive device management.

Product Overview

Universal Control Solution

This universal remote controller is designed to provide seamless operation for a wide variety of audio and video systems. It features an intuitive layout including a full numeric keypad and dedicated buttons for system control, audio/video input selection, and program management. Its ergonomic design ensures easy handling, making it an essential tool for comprehensive device management in professional or home entertainment settings.

Key Features

Functions

- Numeric keypad for direct channel entry
- Audio and video input selection
- System control and standby mode
- Program selection and navigation
- Specialized A.D, G.C, and Woofer controls

Certifications & Status

Status Indicators

Standby Ready • Mute Function • Test Mode