

Universal Television Remote Control

This universal remote control is designed for televisions. It features a standard button layout for power, volume, channel navigation, menu access, numerical input, color-coded buttons, and playback controls.

Product Overview

Universal Television Remote Control

This universal remote control is designed to provide seamless navigation for a wide range of television models and brands. Featuring an intuitive button layout, it includes dedicated controls for volume, channel navigation, and menu access. The inclusion of color-coded and playback buttons ensures comprehensive functionality for everyday media management.

Functional Features

UI Indicators

- Color-coded functional buttons
- Dedicated playback control cluster
- Standard numerical keypad

Supported Functions

Power Control, Volume Adjustment, Channel Navigation, Menu Access, Numerical Input, Playback Control

Compatibility

Usage Suitability

Universal Compatibility • Multi-Brand Support