

University Gymnasium Building

This is a gymnasium building located at Yunnan University. The modern design incorporates a curved roof and extensive glass facade.

Project Overview

Architectural Excellence

The Yunnan University Gymnasium stands as a landmark of modern architectural design, characterized by its distinctive curved roof and an extensive glass facade. This structure seamlessly integrates with the surrounding campus environment, blending sophisticated aesthetics with functional space. Designed to meet high-level facility requirements, it offers an optimal environment for athletic activities.

Design Features

Key Features

- Modern curved roof profile
- Extensive glass facade for natural lighting
- Campus-integrated landscaping
- Accessible pedestrian pathways

Facility Type

Gymnasium • Sports Facility • Educational Infrastructure