

VDE Insulated Combination Pliers with Raised Cutter

These combination pliers are VDE certified and insulated for use up to 1000V. They are designed for gripping, cutting, and manipulating wires and cables and feature a raised cutter.

Product Overview

Professional Grade VDE Combination Pliers

These VDE Insulated Combination Pliers are engineered for safety and efficiency in electrical environments. Featuring a specialized raised cutter design, they provide superior leverage for cutting wires and cables. With certified insulation for up to 1000V, these tools are an essential choice for professional electricians and technicians requiring reliable performance and enhanced safety.

Technical Specifications

Insulation Rating

1000 V

Rated Voltage

Available Sizes

- 6 inch
- 7 inch
- 8 inch

Key Features

Raised Cutter • Insulated Handles • 1000V Rated

Certifications

VDE Certified

Application

Primary Applications

- Gripping wires
- Cutting wires
- Manipulating cables
- Electrical installation