

Vertical Metal Drilling Machine with Adjustable Head

This vertical drilling machine is designed for metal cutting applications. It features a variable speed control dial and a manual feed handle for controlled drilling depth.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Vertical Drilling and Milling

The LD450A series is a high-precision vertical drilling machine engineered for demanding metal-cutting applications. Featuring an all-steel gear drive headstock and a 360-degree swiveling drill-mill head, this unit offers exceptional versatility for complex milling tasks. With integrated fine manual downfeed and adjustable components, it provides the accuracy and reliability required for professional workshop environments.

Performance Metrics

Spindle Speeds

375 RPM

Low Speed

710 RPM

Medium Speed

1250 RPM

High Speed

Technical Specifications

Adjustability & Control

- Manual and power feed options
- Adjustable headstock height
- Adjustable worktable height
- Fine manual downfeed adjustment
- Positive locks for table, head, quill, and column

Key Features

All-steel gear drive, 360-degree swiveling head, T-slot work table, Auto-release tools, 6-step spindle power feed

Cooling System

Yes