

VHF Wireless Microphone System

This VHF wireless microphone system provides reliable wireless audio transmission. Operating at 224.9MHz, it ensures clear and stable signal reception.

Overview

Professional Wireless Audio Performance

The VHF Wireless Microphone System is engineered for reliable, high-clarity audio transmission in a variety of settings including public address systems, presentations, and live performances. Featuring a stable dual-antenna receiver and an intuitive interface, this system provides users with seamless control over frequency and volume. It offers a balanced combination of convenience and flexibility, ensuring consistent sound performance for professional applications.

Technical Specifications

Operating Frequency

224.9 MHz

Frequency

Receiver Features

- Dual-antenna array
- Frequency display
- Adjustable volume control
- Power indicator

Microphone Physical Traits

Gray finish, Manual power switch

Certifications and Compliance

System Type

VHF Wireless