

Video Door Phone System with Color Display

This video door phone system allows visual identification of visitors via a color display. It includes a handset for two-way communication and buttons for door release and system settings.

Overview

Professional Communication and Access Control

This video door phone system provides a secure and efficient solution for visitor management and access control. Featuring a high-quality color display, it allows for clear visual identification of visitors before granting entry. The integrated handset system supports two-way audio communication, ensuring reliable interaction between the interior and exterior environments.

System Capabilities

Communication Type	Two-way audio and visual
Display Technology	Color Display
Core Functions	Video Identification, Two-way Audio, Door Release, System Paging

Hardware Features

Interface Controls

- Handset for audio
- Door release button
- System setting controls
- Visual display interface