

Video Door Phone System

This video door phone system enhances security and convenience. It features a clear display screen and intuitive controls for communication and door access.

Overview

Professional Access Control

This high-quality video door phone system is designed to provide enhanced security and convenience for both residential and office environments. It features a clear, high-resolution display screen that allows for easy visitor identification before granting entry. With integrated two-way audio communication and reliable video monitoring, this system ensures a secure and seamless access control experience.

Core Features

Key Capabilities

- Two-way audio communication
- Real-time video monitoring
- Remote door access control
- High-clarity display screen

Suitable Environments

Residential, Office, Access Control

Design

Design Style

Sleek • Modern • Minimalist