

Video Intercom System with Keypad

This interphone and pager system is designed for secure communication and access control. It features a built-in display screen for video calls and monitoring, along with a keypad for dialing and access codes.

Overview

Professional Video Intercom Solution

This advanced video intercom system is engineered for secure communication and efficient access control in both residential and commercial environments. Featuring an integrated display screen for clear video monitoring and a robust keypad for secure entry codes, it ensures reliable visitor management. The system includes a dedicated handset for private conversations, providing a complete solution for building security and access management.

Key Features

Primary Functions

- Real-time video monitoring
- Secure keypad access
- Private handset communication
- Visitor management

System Capabilities

Video Intercom, Access Control, Residential, Commercial

Operation

Standard Operation

Step	Action
1	Press call system button to contact management center
2	Establish communication
3	Press unlock button for access