

Walk-Behind Soil Tiller

This walk-behind tiller is designed for soil preparation and cultivation. Its compact design and adjustable depth control make it suitable for various soil types and crop requirements.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Soil Preparation

The MOGUL 2000 walk-behind soil tiller is a robust agricultural machine engineered for efficient soil cultivation and aeration. Designed for both gardening and larger field operations, it features a powerful engine and durable rotating tines that effectively break up soil for optimal planting conditions. Its ergonomic, adjustable handlebars and compact, maneuverable frame ensure user comfort and versatility in tight or varied landscapes.

Key Features

Performance Highlights

2000 Series

Model Capacity

Operational Features

- Adjustable tilling depth control
- Ergonomic adjustable handlebars
- Robust rotating tines for soil turning
- Effective weed control capabilities

Safety and Design

Design Advantages

Compact Design • High Maneuverability • Durable Frame

Safety Equipment

Protective Shields, Emergency Stop Mechanism