

Wall-Mounted Intercom System with Handset

This wall-mounted intercom system features a handset connected by a coiled cord. It is designed for secure entry and communication in buildings.

Product Overview

Professional Communication Solution

This wall-mounted intercom system is engineered for secure and reliable communication in both residential and commercial environments. Featuring a classic handset design with a durable coiled cord, it ensures clear audio quality and ease of use. The unit is housed in a robust, rectangular enclosure designed for straightforward wall installation and long-term operational stability.

Physical Characteristics

Mounting Type	Wall-mounted
Handset Design	Ergonomic slim handset with coiled cord
Form Factor	Rectangular housing with vertical handset holder

Application

Primary Applications	Residential Entry, Commercial Access Control, Building Security
----------------------	---