

Wall-Mounted Intercom System with Handset

This wall-mounted intercom system is designed for secure communication and access control. It features a handset with a coiled cord and multiple control buttons.

Product Overview

Professional Communication Solution

This wall-mounted intercom system is engineered for secure communication and reliable access control in both residential and commercial environments. The unit features a classic handset design with a durable coiled cord, ensuring comfortable and private conversations. With an integrated speaker and intuitive control buttons, it offers a user-friendly interface that guarantees clear voice transmission for daily operations.

Technical Specifications

Interface Features

- Handset with coiled cord
- Integrated speaker
- Multiple control buttons

Mounting Style

Wall-mounted

Application Areas

Residential, Commercial, Access Control