

Webbing Sling for Load Lifting

These webbing slings are designed for lifting heavy loads with safety and reliability. The slings are constructed from durable materials, offering excellent resistance to abrasion and wear.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Industrial Grade Webbing Sling

These high-strength webbing slings are engineered for heavy-duty lifting and secure load handling in industrial and commercial environments. Constructed from premium, abrasion-resistant materials, they prioritize safety and operational longevity. Each sling is designed to meet rigorous industry standards, providing professional users with a reliable solution for various hoisting requirements.

Certifications and Compliance

Safety Certifications

CE Certified, TÜV Rheinland Approved, Safety Tested

Performance Specifications

Lifting Capabilities

1 Lifting/Tie-down

Application

Material Benefits

- High-strength construction
- Excellent abrasion resistance
- Wear-resistant material