

Wired Computer Speaker System

This compact speaker system is designed for computer peripherals using a wired connection. It includes two separate speaker units in black, rectangular housings to enhance audio output from computers and other electronic devices.

Product Overview

Compact Audio Solution

This wired computer speaker system provides a versatile audio enhancement solution for professional environments. Designed for seamless integration with computers and various electronic devices, the system features two separate speaker units. Its compact, rectangular design ensures it fits efficiently into any workspace while providing reliable audio output.

Technical Specifications

Color Finish

Black

Design Type

Dual separate speaker units

Connectivity

Wired

Form Factor

Rectangular housing

Application

Computer Audio, Electronic Devices, Desktop Peripherals