

Wireless Video Intercom System with Two-Way Communication

This wireless video intercom system features a color display screen, call button, and antenna for wireless communication. The system allows for remote visual and audio communication, enhancing security and convenience for residential or commercial use.

Product Overview

Advanced Wireless Communication

This wireless video intercom system provides a seamless solution for remote visual and audio communication. Designed for both residential and commercial environments, it enhances security and convenience through its reliable two-way communication capability. The unit features a clear color display and intuitive physical controls for straightforward operation and installation.

Technical Specifications

Interface Controls

- Call Button
- Set Button
- Talk On/Off Switch

Communication Mode

Two-Way Audio and Video

Connectivity

Wireless

Key Features

Color Display, Wireless, Two-Way Audio, Remote Communication

Usage

Suitable Environments

Residential • Commercial