

Wood Splitting Axe with Wooden Handle

This axe is designed for chopping and splitting wood. It features a robust, black-coated steel head securely fastened to a smooth, light-colored wooden handle, combining durability with a comfortable grip for efficient use.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Wood Splitting Axe

This wood splitting axe is engineered for durability and efficient performance in demanding outdoor environments. Featuring a fully polished blade and a robust wooden handle, it is designed to provide a comfortable, secure grip for consistent chopping and splitting tasks. The tool is manufactured under strict quality management systems, ensuring reliability for professional users.

Manufacturing Standards

Certifications

ISO 9001

Design & Customization

Included Accessories

- Rubber sheath

Head Finish

Fully polished with golden color painting

Customization

Head color can be painted as per customer requirements

Construction

Handle Material

Wood